

Andalucía Camino de Pasión AC3

Carmona - Osuna - Priego de Cordoba

Discover the hidden charms of small town Andalucía

Summary

A trip through the Andalusian heartlands staying in charming, small towns united in their devotion to the Passion of Christ which culminates in the intense fervour of Easter week.

Rich in oil, wine and minerals the region has been highly prized by Tartessians, Romans and Moors, each passing civilisation leaving its mark and amounting to an immensely rich cultural heritage.

The cities of Moorish Andalucía, Granada, Cordoba and Sevilla, are within easy reach and there are sierras, wetlands and olive groves where you can get away from it all...

Stage 1

Region: Sevilla

Gateway to the New World & all its riches
3 World Heritage Sites in the Old Town!
Magnificent Cathedral & Archive of the Indies
Moorish Alcázar Palace & Giralda Tower
Thriving Flamenco culture in Triana
Soak in the atmosphere of Barrio de la Santa Cruz
Savour hand-cut 'jamón' in the wonderful tapas bars

Historic town hotel in Carmona

In a discreet corner in the upper part of the old town this charming small hotel makes a relaxing base from which to discover delightful Carmona and the province of Sevilla. Its typical Andalucian structure, with shady patios, each centred around a fountain and literally festooned with plants, makes the hotel a true oasis of peace and freshness. Furnished and decorated in a romantic, Andalucian style, with many antiques and artefacts, each...Read More

Hotel Museum in historic mansion

Housed in an historic mansion in the heart of the Osuna, this hotel is quite unique, doubling as an ethnographic museum with many interesting artefacts tastefully displayed. Built around a sumptuous shady patio this historic coaching inn is said to have hosted Washington Irving on his way from Seville to Granada. Nowadays it has been thoughtfully restored with an eye for detail and guests' comfort. The hotel has a breakfast room which opens ...Read More

Stage 3

Region: Cordoba

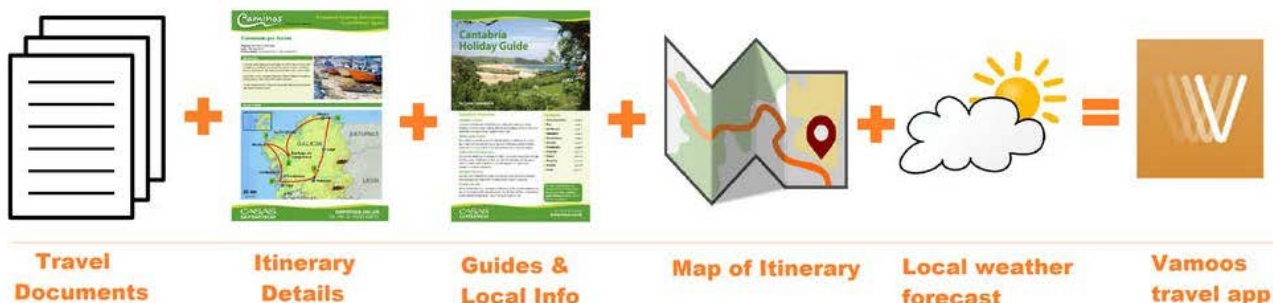

The Great Mosque - western Europe's largest Islamic edifice
Lose yourself in the labyrinthine Jewish Quarter
Marvel at the patios overloaded with potted geraniums
Enjoy a Flamenco show and Aran influenced gastronomy
Try the local Montilla - Moriles wines - but handle with care!
Explore the Roman ruins of Hispania Ulterior & Baetica
Visit the archaeological site of Medina Azahara on the outskirts

Cortijo style in the Sierra

Built in the style of a typical Andalusian Cortijo, offers a relaxing base from which to explore central Andalucia with plenty of space to cool off in its airy indoor patios or around the pool. At the foot of the Sierras Subbéticas Nature Park rising up to over 1200m there is wonderful walking, cycling, birdwatching and a host of other mountain activities just nearby. Priego de Cordoba with its labyrinthine old town, pristine white and f...Read More
