

Discover Galicia NC5

Galicia – a circular tour of the Celtic Province

With Santiago at its heart; lush green hills, fabulous beaches and the best of Spanish gastronomy.

Summary

In the far north west corner of Spain, for centuries journey's end for pilgrims travelling from all over Europe and long considered the end of the earth, the Celtic land of Galicia has much to offer.

Apart from its rich heritage there are miles of beautiful coastline and an interior with many little known wonders.

For the foodies there's plenty to relish with Spain's best seafood and some fantastic wines.

Stage 1

Region: Costa de la Muerte & Rias Altas, Galicia

Finisterre, literally 'the end of the world' so named by the Romans

Carnota beach, a long standing favourite - and many more besides

The famous potteries of Buño

A Coruña with an aquarium, museums, charming old quarter, and the world's only functioning Roman lighthouse

Coastal Camariñas with its lace making tradition

Country house hotel by coast and fishing port

In a lovely, quiet and restful country spot, surrounded by woods and maize fields, an easy walk from the little, working fishing port of Camariñas, famous for its bobbin lace making, this delightful, small, family run hotel provides a perfect base for exploring the Costa Da Morte with all its seafaring history. Comprised of three, attractively restored, granite stone buildings, centred around a courtyard and in a beautifully kept garden with...Read More

Stage 2

Region: Rias Baixas, Galicia

Feast on the shellfish farmed locally in the Rias

The idyllic islands of Cies and Ons, both National Parks

Vigo, Europe's largest fishing port and a lively city at any time of year

Albariño wines - arguably Spain's finest whites - visit Cambados, the charming old town at the heart of the region

The Galician Rias - broad estuaries, a haven for watersports from sailing to surfing.

Stylish hotel with pool among vineyards, near coast

Looking out over Albariño vineyards and gently rolling hills beyond, in the heart of the Salnes valley with its mild and agreeable climate in the Rias Baixas, this very special hotel, in a sleepy hamlet, with a pool and an excellent restaurant, is a dream come true. The owners spent many years searching for the perfect location and this is it! A harmonious blend of century old stone buildings with dynamic modern, with original features and or...Read More

Stage 3

Region: Santiago & the interior

Santiago, journey's end, for centuries Europe's Nº 1 pilgrim destination
Take a Catamaran trip down the magnificent Rio Sil
Ribeiro wines from vineyards on the steep river valleys of the Miño and Sil
Ourense, full of surprises, and Monforte de Lemos, both steeped in history
Take a trip around the monasteries of the Ribera Sacra Lugo, a thriving city with Roman walls
Los Ancares nature park, little discovered acres of native woodlands

Country hotel with pool

This old Manor House could not be better located nor could your welcome from its charming owners Benito and Gill, who will offer you a cup of tea on your arrival, be better. Their helpfulness and knowledge of the region will make your stay a very special one. The manor, an 18th century building, once owned by Benito's great grandfather is situated within 5 minutes (6kms) from the old town of Ourense along one of the most important Jacobean w...Read More

Stage 4

Region: Costa Lucense, Galicia

Great seafood - famed throughout Spain
Playa de los Catedrales - just one of many fantastic beaches
Viveiro, lively seaside city with an atmospheric old town and lovely beaches
Sargadelos pottery, hand made and traditional but with a modern look Fiesta! Some of Spain's most traditional, like Rapa das Bestas or Ortiguera Folk, well established the world music circuit

Country hotel, Costa Lucense

In the same family for generations, this delightful house, standing in very well kept grounds, has been beautifully restored and furnished to make a very comfortable country hotel whilst maintaining many original features and artefacts. You will find total peace and quiet here, the hotel being set in deep countryside, yet you're only a short drive away from beautiful beaches, including the famous Playa de las Catedrales. The interesting fis...Read More

Stage 5

Region: Santiago & the interior

Santiago, journey's end, for centuries Europe's Nº 1 pilgrim destination

Take a Catamaran trip down the magnificent Rio Sil

Ribeiro wines from vineyards on the steep river valleys of the Miño and Sil

Ourense, full of surprises, and Monforte de Lemos, both steeped in history

Take a trip around the monasteries of the Ribera Sacra Lugo, a thriving city with Roman walls

City hotel with garden

In the heart of the medieval city of Santiago de Compostela, this charming and popular hotel combines traditional architectural features with modern comforts and has the added blessing of a lovely garden, where you can eat breakfast or enjoy an aperitif among the apple and lemon trees. There is also a "cristalera" - a glassed-in verandah - for breakfast and for sitting in, a coffee-shop/bar with old stone fireplace and a small library with an e...Read More
