

NC10 Discover Navarra

From the emerald green valleys near the Atlantic to the high, rocky mountains of the Pyrenees down to the Arizona-like desert of Las Bardenas and on to the abundantly fertile Ribera in the far south, Navarra offers a world of marvellous contrasts and all in an area just half the size of Wales!

Come and try the delicious market-garden delicacies from the south and wonderful meat from the northern mountains, brought to table with a strong Basque influence and accompanied by superb regional wines you'll never find at home. Foodies are certainly in for a real treat but so birdwatchers, hikers, cyclists, stargazers, canoers and anyone who enjoys the great outdoors!
