

NC5 Discover Galicia

In the far north west corner of Spain, for centuries journey's-end for pilgrims travelling from all over Europe and long considered the end of the earth, the Celtic land of Galicia has much to offer today's visitor.

Apart from this rich heritage there are miles of beautiful coastline and an interior with many little known wonders in a province larger than Wales. For the foodies there's plenty to relish with Spain's best seafood and some fantastic white wines as well as good meat and garden produce.
