AC4 Discover Cádiz - The province of light

The province of Cadiz, steeped in history, though not famed for grand monuments or important museums, has more variety than any other in Andalucía. Eminently maritime, with 250 kilometres of coastline, boasting stunning sandy beaches making up La Costa de La Luz (Coast of Light), it offers so much more.

The historic port and city of Cadiz, the fascinating "sherry towns" of Jerez de la Frontera, Sanlúcar de Barrameda and Puerto Santa María, the dramatic "pueblos blancos" (white towns), the stunningly beautiful sierras of Grazalema and Alcornocales and part of the very special Natural Park of Coto Donana are just some of its attractions.

Stage 5

Cádiz, Costa de la Luz

Highlights

- Vejer de la Frontera, the best preserved of the Arab towns
- The Cape of Trafalgar, scene of Nelson's famous victory
- Stunning, dune-backed beaches, cooled by Atlantic breezes
- Playa Bolonia, with the Roman ruins of Baelo Claudia
- Tarifa - Europe's wind-surfing capital

HVEJ1, Vejer de la Frontera

See full details

Accommodation: 1 x Twin/Double, Bed and Breakfast

Hugely evocative, this delightful small hotel really brings to life the Moorish past of Al Andalus. Composed of many little casitas with narrow arched alleyways and stairways ducking and diving between, the result is a magical labyrinth on many levels.

The perfect example of the Andalucian white village, Vejer de la Frontera occupies a hilltop position just 15 minutes' drive from the beach and is well placed to explore Costa de la Luz from Tarifa, the wind-surf capital of Europe, to historic Cadiz. One of the main gateways to Africa, each civilisation has left its mark on the area from Roman ruins right on the beach at Playa Bolonia and in Medina-Sidonia to a Moorish Alcazar and a 15th century castle.

Main facilities	• Wi-Fi all areas
Room facilities	• En-suite bathroom • Air conditioning • Tea/coffee making facilities
Dining	• Restaurant, open to the public • Bars/restaurants within walking distance of the hotel
Room types	• Not suitable for guests with reduced mobility
