

CT4 Secrets of Southern Catalonia

Well known for its bucket-and-spade seaside resorts, this fascinating corner of Catalonia is laden with secret gems just waiting to be discovered.

In Tarragona you'll find a city to rival Barcelona but without the tourist crowds and with spectacular Roman remains. Nearby Reus has splendid Modernist buildings and a Gaudí museum.

Head north or south and you're in wine country of Priorat and Cava. Hiking trails among the vines offering stunning scenery to enjoy between tastings.

You're never far from the coast and the lesser-known gems such as delightful Altafulla, Ametlla del Mar or elegant Sitges. In the Ebro Delta, an immensely rich birdlife thrives among the rice fields. Head inland towards medieval Tortosa and Miravet set below the 1500m mountains of Els Ports.
